A Message From Our Pastor

UPCOMING EVENTS FOR SEPTEMBER 2016

Convictions

What is a conviction? One person says that it is no more than a personal opinion. Others define it as those things for which you would be willing to die; all else is a preference. Some teach that convictions are based on direct scriptural teaching. Others teach that convictions are not even scriptural. Why all the confusion? What is a good biblical approach to the concept of convictions? Let us see if we can make any sense out of it all.

The word convict is only used once in the Bible where the men who accused the women of adultery were "convicted by their own conscience" (John 8:9).

The word convince is used seven times:

1. Job 32:12
2. John 8:46
3. Acts 18:28
4. 1Corinthians 14:24
5. Titus 1:9
6. James 2:9
7. Jude 15

This word (convince) is the key to understanding the other two words. One who is convicted is convinced of sin or error. In its simplest meaning, a conviction is something about which we are convinced. In most of the cases where convince is used in the Bible, it is similar to our use of the word convict. It usually deals with those who are convinced of sin.

This segment will be continued on the next edition.

God bless

Impact News

2016 Church Camp

It has been a great even filled with fun, laughter and connecting to one another and, most importantly, a wonderful, spiritually refreshing experience for everyone.

The first night we were swimming in the tents! The rain came down and drowned us but we rebuilt and overcame to have the best time over the coming days!

The camp was outstanding, the organisation was spot on, the ministry excellent and the song service awesome. A great big thank you to everyone who organised, helped, participated and took part of this wonderful event.

We look forward to a better camp for next year!

Aunt Marg's Kitchen

Caramel Cupcakes

Makes 24

- * 1 Cup (175g) Self Raising/Rising Flour
- * 400g Can Top n Fill or Carnation Caramel
- * 1 Egg
- * 1/3 Cup (75g) butter, at room temperature

Preheat the oven to 180C. Sift the flour into a bowl and add the caramel, egg and butter. With an electric mixer, beat until pale and fluffy, about 2 minutes. line 24 muffin cups with paper liners. Divide the batter among the cups and bake until golden brown, about 10 minutes.
